Meet your Nurse Practitioner

Christina Bricout, AGPCNP-BC

Education: The University of Cincinnati

Board Certification: American Nurses Credentialing Center

Chris is a board-certified Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner with over 30 years of healthcare experience. She holds a BA in Journalism (UT-Austin), a BS in Nursing (UT-Arlington), and an MSN from the University of Cincinnati.

She enjoys developing relationships with each of her patients and their families. By honoring her patient's choices and providing evidence-based management of their health conditions, her goal is the best health care possible, delivered with a warm, personal touch.

Chris likes to hike on the weekends with her husband and her dog and has been fortunate to visit beautiful parks in many states. She especially enjoys learning about and sighting birds, both local and migrating. She and her husband have three children.
